Federal Communications Commission
(EB Docket No. 06-36)

I am the owner and only employee of VoiceSat, LLC. I do not share any of my client's information with anybody, except some information with my provider. Included in my contract (TELECOMMUNICATIONS RESELLER AGREEMENT 14. Confidentiality and 15. Non-Circumvention) are two clauses that state that the provider cannot disclose any of my client's information to anyone. My client's (not the provider's) information is administrated solely by me and it is under secured applications that contain passwords that only I know.
